Dr. Murphy's Generosity.
The Mountain Echo, published in Stroudsburg, Pa., in its issue of August 20, devotes a paragraph to the narration of an incident reflecting great credit on Mrs. John Murphy, of Richmond. She was a recent guest at Montanessa Hotel, Pennsylvania, and during her stay there Frank B. Lynch, of Philadelphia, a medical student of the University of Pennsylvania and a cripple, while in the performance of his duties as head bellman at the Montanessa, was badly hurt by an unmanageable horse.

Mrs. Murphy succeeded in raising a purse of $2 for the unfortunate man among the guests, and had the pleasure of presenting it before her return to Richmond.

Dr. and Mrs. McGeehee Here.
Dr. W. H. McGeehee, of Cincinnati, who is returning from his summer vacation at Ocean View, Virginia Beach and other seaside resorts, is now stopping with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McGeehee, at 115 South First Street. At Norfolk Dr. McGeehee was joined by his wife, formerly Miss Helen Nye, of Washington, who has been visiting her parents at the Capital City. After a short sojourn with their many friends in Richmond, Dr. McGeehee, with his family, will leave for Cincinnati to resume his professional work.

BOY LOSES HIS LIFE.

Falls in River and is Drowned Before Help Arrives.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, N. C., August 23.—Major John Wright, the thirteen-year-old son of M. J. Wright, of this city, met his death by drowning in the Pamlico River this morning between 2 and 10 o'clock. The little fellow was playing on the Atlantic Coast Line docks, which are about 100 feet above the water line, and in some unaccountable way lost his balance and fell overboard. Edward Archbell, one of his playmates, saw him, and tried to save him, but failing, gave the alarm, and soon a large number of citizens arrived on the twelve feet above the water line, and in some unaccountable way lost his balance and fell overboard.
